

“A World of Influences”

Meadowlark’s magical mixture of harp-like fingerstyle guitar and effervescent flute and pennywhistles transports listeners on a magic carpet ride through their many cultural and natural influences. Melding Celtic, African and Mediterranean with folk and contemporary styles, this delightful pair offers up humorous and anecdotal insight into the stories behind their compositions.